

NAIOP South Florida gives awards in commercial real estate

Sun Sentinel

MARCH 3, 2016, 4:52 PM

NAIOP South Florida, a commercial real estate development organization, recognized the winners of its 2016 Awards of Excellence.

Douglas Eagon, president of Stiles Corp., received the 2016 Lifetime Achievement Award.

Other winners were:

Industrial Lease Transaction of the Year, Liberty Property Trust for the Miami International Tradeport, BTS for Ansaldo Breda, Inc/Hitachi Rail USA transaction; The Industrial Sale of the Year, CBRE for the Centergate at Gratinny transaction; Industrial Broker of the Year, George Pino of State Street Realty; Office Lease Transaction of the Year, Plantation Pointe / Magic Leap facilitated by Cushman & Wakefield and Torburn Partners; Office Sale of the Year, Phillips Point represented by HFF; Office Broker of the Year for Investment Sales, Douglas Mandel of Marcus & Millichap; Office Broker of the Year for Leasing, Norm Adams of Stiles Corp.; Investment Sales Team Broker of the Year, CBRE South Florida's Capital Markets Team; Office Team Broker of the Year, Cushman & Wakefield team; Industrial Team Broker of the Year, Cushman & Wakefield team; Rookie Broker of the Year, Lauren Gallart of JLL; Renovation / Rehab Project of the Year, University Place at City Center represented by Butters Realty and Management and Bristol Group; Creative Deal Maker of the Year, Rodrigo Azpurua of Riviera Point Development Group for the Professional Center at Riviera Point; Economic Impact of the Year, Plantation Pointe / Magic Leap represented by Cushman & Wakefield and Torburn Partners; Project of the Year, Miramar Park of Commerce represented by Sunbeam Properties; Developer of the Year, Butters Construction & Development; Broker's Choice Award, Darcie Lunsford of Butters Realty & Management; Developing Leader of the Year, Alex Gulick of Procacci Development Corp.; and Member of the Year, Michael Silver of CBRE.

Copyright © 2016, Sun Sentinel

This article is related to: Commercial Real Estate