

NAI Miami Negotiates Industrial Lease for Kintetsu World Express USA, Inc. In Doral

NAI www.naimiamiblog.com/nai-miami-negotiates-industrial-lease-for-kintetsu-world-express-usa-inc-in-doral/

ADMIN

NAI Miami announced that Lucia Custer and Gabriel Garcia-Menocal, SIOR, along with Rick Medinis, SIOR and Mark Miller, SIOR from NAI Robert Lynn from Fort Worth, Texas, negotiated an industrial lease for their client Kintetsu World Express USA, Inc.

The lease was executed at Beacon Centre 1825 Northwest 87th Avenue in Doral. The Landlord is Prologis, represented by George Pino, SIOR, president of State Street Realty.

As a member of the large Japanese conglomerate, the Kintetsu group, Kintetsu World Express, Inc. has been a key player in the global transportation and freight forwarding industry since 1948. Since then, KWE has grown into a worldwide logistics and forwarding network spanning six continents. Through its expansive global network and experienced logistics professionals, KWE offers unparalleled transportation and logistics services, exception-free handling and customized account management. KWE offers consistent, high-quality, exception-free transportation and logistics services throughout the world.

Operations began in the United States in Chicago in 1969; since that time, KWE USA has followed an aggressive growth program to become one of the most respected forwarders in the US recognized for our quality of service and dedication to building long term partnerships with our clients and suppliers. Today, KWE USA employs over 500 logistics professionals at 31 offices nationwide.

Beacon Centre, 1825 Northwest 87th Ave., Doral