Congratulations!

Brian Cabielles, State Street Realty, has been selected by the editors of Real Estate Forum as an Emerging Industrial Leader, profiling professionals aged 35 and under that have exhibited exceptional performance in the industrial real estate sector.

The feature will run in the October 2015 issue of the magazine, which is due for release mid-month and will also include our Industrial Update and the Top US Industrial Brokers features.

If you have not done so already, please submit a minimum 3x4 color headshot in a jpeg or tif format, 300 dpi resolution or higher.

If you would like to request a couple of copies of the issue, please let me know before October 1. I cannot ensure I will be able to send you copies after that date, as we keep extra issues off site.

As always, feel free to contact me with any editorial inquiries. All congratulatory advertising inquiries should be directed to Gregg Christensen at gchristensen@alm.com.

Again, congratulations on your selection.
